7. Screenshots

The screenshot shows the ChatGPT interface with a sidebar containing a list of previous chats and a main panel for generating a financial report. The main panel includes a detailed template for a quarterly earnings report, structured into sections like Executive Summary, Key Financial Metrics, Income and Expense Highlights, Balance Sheet Summary, and Credit Risk & Asset Quality. The template uses bullet points and section headers (e.g., #1, #2, #3) to outline the required content.

This screenshot continues the financial report template from the previous one. It adds more sections such as Year-over-year changes, Balance Sheet Summary, Credit Risk & Asset Quality, and Suggested Visuals. The template also includes instructions for final output format and a note about generating reports from uploaded documents. The sidebar remains the same, showing a history of AI-related chats.
